Dear Diary...

I'm Chistine, my father was Mr. Daaé. I was born in Sweden, some months later after my born my mum died, so my father look after me until his died. He took the violin and he really loves music, as me! I learned to sing, my father said that I have good voice, but always could be better. The relationship with my father was like a friend, I love hear he telling stories, and one of them were the story about the Angel of Music. He told me that after his dead he will send my the Angel of Music, who will help and teach me to sing better yet.

Three years ago, I was walking on the seashore and my scarf flew into the sea, a guy was seen it and he swam to catch it, I thanked him a lot and we will be friends, his name was Raoul. Some month later, my father died and my voice was getting worse; I was move to Paris. I sang in the Opera house, my voice was not impressive so I never sang the important part of the performance until the Angel of Music came. When my father said that, I didn't believe it, I was think that was not true! But I was see him, I was hear him! He was a singer and his voice was impressive, no one sang better as he! As my father told me before, he teach me how to sang better. What I did not expect was that he fell in love with me!

One day, In a performance I met Raoul again after a long time without seeing each other. He assist in my performance of the operas "Romeo and Juliet and Faust", after this meeting he fall in love with me and I love him too! If Erik knew that I sure he will get very jealous and maybe he won't teach me more about how to sang better and he will hurt Raoul! So... What can I do?
